

A blue, blue Christmas

[dropcap style="font-size: 60px; color: #A02F2F;"] I [/dropcap]f you thought you were going to get away without even ONE Christmas Carol from Bluestone Magazine, then think again.

After all, Carol is one half of Bluestone and this is her season!

(And try not to feel like you are at your relative's house already – that will happen on December 25!)

Merry Christmas everyone!

Homestyle cakes a recipe for success

There is a fair chance that among all of the thousands of cafe reviews ever written, very few have featured a cafe inside a nursing home. Yes – a nursing home. And the particular nursing home in question is the largest and oldest in Warrnambool – Lyndoch...

Close Flagstaff Hill; save Fletcher Jones

If there is one thing Warrnambool needs to get right, it is the preservation of Pleasant Hill and the Fletcher Jones site...so why are we spending so much time, money and effort on Flagstaff Hill instead?

Bluestone Magazine has delivered on its promise to produce a quality read every week about the arts, people, food and places of beautiful South-West Victoria. The response to our online magazine has been wonderful, but we are asking for your help to continue in 2014. Click above to find out more.

End of the line for fine art at Sherwood Park

Mark Rashleigh is the last man standing at what was once a flourishing School of Art and Design at Sherwood Park, Warrnambool, and, come mid next year, he too will be gone.
