

Our world: Robin Sharrock

[box] This incredible image of a rollcloud above Ryot St, Warrnambool, was taken by local photographer extraordinaire Robin Sharrock and has gone global. It was also chosen by the Bureau of Meteorology as its January shot for its 2014 calendar: a competition that attracts thousands of entries. Superb. Robin works freelance and can be contacted at: robinsharrock@hotmail.net.au [/box]
