

On the gravy train, there are always plenty of passengers

The WCC credit card scandal does not stop with just one manager. In fact, a new receipt shows we're at the tip of the iceberg.

Eye fillet, pork belly and seafood linguine: your rates at work

WCC ratepayers have footed the bill for thousands of dollars spent on meals racked up on one corporate credit card, by one council manager.

WCC spends thousands on Cape Schanck delegation despite pushing rate rise

The W'bool City Council spent thousands to send seven delegates to a conference at Cape Schanck last July, including the W'bool Racing Club CEO.
